

Plymouth University
&
Centre for Maritime Logistics,
Economics and Finance (CEMLEF)

Dr Jingjing Xu

Associate Professor (Reader) in Maritime Law and Economics

Deputy Director, CEMLEF

University of Plymouth, Plymouth, UK

Jingjing.xu@plymouth.ac.uk

Plymouth University

- Plymouth University is in South West England
- Fourth largest university in the UK
- 30,000 students; 3,000 staff
- The University has a very long maritime tradition - it first started as a College of Navigation in 1862
- Marine and maritime research is the top priority strategic area in the University

Centre for Maritime Logistics, Economics and Finance (CEMLEF)

- Expertise on:
 - maritime policy (marine pollution, maritime safety and security);
 - Maritime logistics and supply chain management;
 - shipping and port management;
 - Socio-economic implications of law and policy implementation

EU Projects

- "(SOWFIA) Streamlining of Offshore Wave Farms Impact Assessment" Intelligent Energy Europe Programme IEE,
- "(MERIFIC) Marine Energy in Far Peripheral & Island Communities" INTERREG programme France (Channel) - England,
- "(MoVe IT!) Modernisation of Vessels for Inland waterway freight Transport" FP7 SST.2011.5.2-3
- "(PERSEUS) Policy-oriented marine Environmental Research in the Southern European Seas", FP7 OCEAN OF TOMORROW.2011-3

Thank you!

UK partner
Maritime law and policy maritime logistics socio-economic analysis

Jingjing.xu@plymouth.ac.uk